

SALE OF REAL HAND CROCHETED DOILIES

Yes, real hand crocheted, done in the homes of the Peasants of the "Old Country." About two hundred and fifty pieces in five different sizes and not a size but what would take from one day to a week for an expert to work. How in the world they ever could be landed even at anything like the prices we are selling them for we cannot understand. Any way, we consider them the biggest Christmas special we have ever offered. Saturday morning they go on sale, the different sizes, at the following prices:

8 inch for 18 cents. 12 inch for 30 cents.
14 inch for 45 cents. 18 inch for 69 cents.
20 inch for 98 cents.

One of the most complete lists of appropriate Christmas gifts for men and boys yet published this year appears to-day in A. A. Smith and Brother's ad. on page 4. This list should be very helpful to holiday shoppers in choosing presents. Prices are quoted, so that a good idea of what certain things cost may be obtained from reading the ad. A good plan is to check off with a pencil those articles you think of buying, and purchase early.

THE BARRE DAILY TIMES THURSDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1908.
